1ST READING: (DEUTERONOMY 8:2-3, 14B-16A)

The perishable bread God sends from heaven sustains the people who will themselves eventually perish. The promise of the Eucharist is that Jesus feeds us with imperishable food that is his very self so that we remain in him and live forever. We take in food for the sake of nourishment and pleasure—we receive sustenance and delight. The food Jesus gives us, however, is for more than sustenance and delight—it is an invitation to receive so that we might give as he does.

2ND READING: (1 CORINTHIANS 10:16-17)

“Body and blood” refer not to things in themselves but to an event and a person—to Christ giving himself in his redemptive death. In Holy Communion he offers real participation in himself as he gives himself to his sacrificial death. This language draws out explicitly the meaning of his words and actions at the Last Supper.

GOSPEL: (JOHN 6:51-58)

Jesus' declaration that he is the "bread that came down from heaven" grounds his further declaration that those who eat "this bread will live forever." Jesus is the divine Word made flesh—a flesh and blood now given to us for food and drink so that we live in communion with him. The core of the mystery of Eucharist is the Son's self-giving that is our eternal Life.

Let us look at Jesus in the Monstrance, Who humbles Himself to come before us as a piece of bread. Let us reflect on our own life's situations that call us to humility. Are we humble, as God wants us to be, to bear our Crosses daily? Other virtues such as patience, temperance, self-control and piety will soon follow.

CHURCH OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL - CODE OF CONDUCT

(The Parish Pastoral Council has approved the code of conduct which was formulated following the parish retreat on 29 Oct 2016)

"I am writing to you about these matters, although I hope to visit you soon. But if I should be delayed, you should know how to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of truth."

(1 Timothy 3: 14-15)

We, the parishioners of the Church of St Vincent de Paul, desire to fully and actively participate in the liturgy. We embrace piety and fear of the Lord.

We express this in our conduct and we abide by the following code:

- We arrive on time to worship the Lord
- We observe sacred silence within the church
- We strive for modesty and reverence in our dressing
- We set aside all distractions and give our loving attention to the Lord
- We are respectful and kind to all who worship and serve in the church
- We care for the property and facilities of the church
- And we help the children of our parish to uphold this code, knowing that in the church, worship and devotion is a communal effort.
